GEORGETOWN COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC
Presents

Noteworthy
A Faculty and Guest Artist Concert Series
2010-2011

From Many Foreign Lands
September 9, 2010 • 8:00pm

Dr. Matthew Hoch, baritone
Dr. Heather Winter Hunnicutt, soprano
Ben Harris, piano

Enjoy a vocal program that breaks away from traditional recital repertoire with compositions in Czech, Danish, Finnish, Greek, Hawaiian, Icelandic, Japanese, Mandarin Chinese, Norwegian, Russian, Spanish and Swedish featuring faculty from Shorter University and Georgetown College.

Of Trumpets, Hermits and Charmers
September 20, 2010 • 8:00pm

Christine Donahue, soprano
Betty Lewis Cohen, piano
Dr. H. M. Lewis, trumpet

Soprano Christine Donahue, Assistant Professor of Voice at the University of Central Arkansas is featured in this versatile program which includes Baroque duets with trumpet and a tribute to the 100th Anniversary of composer Samuel Barber’s birth.

Faculty Guitar Recital
September 30, 2010 • 8:00pm

Michael Fogler, guitar

Georgetown College music faculty member Michael Fogler presents a concert of classical guitar music featuring compositions by Alexandre Tansman, Manuel Ponce, Johann Sebastian Bach, Ned Rorem, and Joaquin Rodrigo.

An Evening of Cello & Piano Music
October 30, 2010 • 3:00pm

Dr. Yeon-Ji Yun, cello
Nariaki Sugiura, piano

Yeon-Ji Yun and Nariaki Sugiura, who have toured together as a duo in many parts of the world, will present a recital of cello and piano compositions. The program will include original works of Cassado and Piazzolla as well as transcriptions of Brahms’s works originally written for violin and piano. Dr. Yun and Prof. Sugiura are on the faculty at DePaul University School of Music.

Broadway Love Songs
November 11, 2010 • 8:00pm

Daniel Bell, tenor
Dr. Wes Golightly, piano

Experience a journey through the last century on Broadway as Kentucky Christian University music faculty members Daniel Bell and Wes Golightly perform a collection of love songs. Come out to hear wonderful new works as well as the classics you love like “On the Street Where You Live,” “Younger Than Springtime” and “Johanna.”

Faculty Showcase Recital
January 30, 2011 • 3:00pm

Georgetown College Music Faculty

Treat yourself to a variety of instruments and voices as the Georgetown College music faculty performs their annual showcase concert. With music from various time periods, composers and plenty of performers, this concert has something for everyone.

An Evening of Mozart
March 4, 2011 • 8:00pm

Opera Appalachia

Be entertained by staged presentations of some of Mozart’s most beloved works. GC music faculty member Dr. Heather Winter Hunnicutt (soprano), Marybeth Harris Christman (mezzo-soprano), Daniel Bell (tenor), David Herrington (bass) and GC alumnus Ryland Pope (baritone) will make you laugh, cry, and love opera.

Die schöne Müllerin
March 23, 2011 • 8:00pm

Dr. David Sievers, tenor
John Benjamin, piano

Join this collaborative duo for one of the most cherished cycles of German Lieder from the Romantic period. Follow the musical story of the youthful journeyman who falls deeply in love with the Miller’s daughter and seeks to win her heart.

All performances are in the John Hill Chapel on the Georgetown College campus and are free of charge.